

RESUME

Mary Thompson

Objective: To Teach English (or list other subjects) In China

Educational Background:

University of Colorado Boulder, B.A., May 2005
Major- Anthropology, 3.6 GPA, Magna Cum Laude
University of Wisconsin, Madison, M.A., May 2008
Major-Communications, 3.79 GPA

Awards

- Scholars Week Presentation- 2006
- Lake Forest Park Rotary Presentation for Study Abroad Grant- 2006
- Community Service Outstanding Senior Award- awarded for 1,200 hours of Community Service- 2003
- The Rotary Club "Service Above Self" Award- 2003
- Denver Municipal League Essay Finalist- 3rd Place- 2002
- National Honors Society- 2001-2003

Teaching and Tutoring Experience

- Denver Literacy Council's Talk Time Teacher- teach a one and half hour English conversation class with 20 students from different countries and skill levels- January 2007-December 2010
- tutor children with their daily homework- focusing on English writing skills- 2006-current
- Taught English in Vietnamese High School- lived in a small Vietnamese village with local teachers and helped students with their writing assignments- 2006
- English Language Learners Program Assistant- help parents who do not speak English understand their children's school assignments, help tutor children- 2004-2005
- YMCA After School Program Site Supervisor- organized and supervised a childcare center where tutoring and academic activities occurred daily- 2004-2005
- Big Sister through BBBS Program- tutor underprivileged girl once a week, serve as a mentor- 2003-current
- Head Counselor at Camp Casey, a camp for physically and developmentally disabled children aged 5-17- involved tutoring, mentoring, public speaking, communication with parents, organizing daily schedule and camp activities- 2001-2004

- Worked at Parkwood Elementary School with physically and developmentally disabled children aged 7-10- tutoring in basic skills and mentoring- 2001-2003
- Lawfirm Office Assistant- receptionist, file clerk, managed front desk and spoke with hundreds of clients daily- 2001-2003
- Basketball and Baseball Coach- managed five teams of 10 children, taught them skills, organized practices and games, communicated with parents- 2001-2002

Travel Experience

- Traveled in Thailand, Laos, Vietnam, Cambodia, Malaysia, India and Bangladesh- six months- working on independent study projects for 35 University credits- 2006
- Traveled to England, Netherlands, Germany, France, and Italy for seven weeks- 2004
- Lived in Germany for three months- attended German Gymnasium school- I speak, read, and write German moderately well - 2002