

RESUME

Steven Robertson

Objective: To Teach English in China

Educational Background:

Bachelor of Arts in History and Political Science
Minor : Spanish
University of Notre Dame, Indiana, Graduated May, 2007 GPA 3.60
Dean's Honor Roll, 2005-2007

Pertinent Courses:

- English Composition (Advanced Credit)
- American Politics (Advanced Credit)
- Growth of the American Nation (Advanced Credit)
- Development of Modern America (Advanced Credit)
- Intermediate French I and II
- Beginning Spanish I and II
- University Seminar on English Literature
- History Seminar: Reforming America
- History of Paris
- Political Science Seminar: Great Books in International Relations
- Basics of Film and Television
- Introduction to Philosophy
- Philosophy of Human Nature

International Travel:

Studied in Paris, France, Academic Year of 2006-07. Studied in Barcelona, Spain summer of 2005

Languages:

Conversational ability in French and intermediate Spanish

Employment:

Teach for America, Grades 4 and 5, Brownsville, Texas, June 2007-present

Computer Proficiencies:

- Advanced Skills in Microsoft office suite including Word, Excel, Powerpoint.
- Proficient in SAS and SPSS statistical software.
- Proficient in Microsoft Access.

Interests/Activities:

I was a member of the university's: basketball team in 2004; Boxing Club 2006; Freshman Orientation Program staff in 2004. President- Men's Club Volleyball. Member Spanish and French Club and International Relations Forum. Avid reader, hiker and traveler. Play the guitar.

-